Consolidated Carpet Announces Relocation of their New York City Office to Reflect Exponential Growth

(New York, NY- October 1st, 2018) Consolidated Carpet, a leading flooring contractor in the New York City Metropolitan area, announced the relocation of its NYC headquarters effective November 1st, 2018. The new office space, located at 16 West 22nd Street New York, NY 10010, answers to increasing industry demand for collaborative open work spaces, state of the art showrooms, and updated technology systems.

The newly renovated 13,000 square foot lease occupies the top floor of the building and takes up the length of the entire city block between 5th and 6th Avenue. The strategically designed floor plan promotes worker productivity and houses the space for increasing Consolidated Carpet personnel as well as the company's vast network of clients. "We are designing our NYC office relocation as a destination for our many client constituencies. Our flooring showroom will be a client centric space, exhibiting progressive design elements built for hosting industry events and showcasing innovative flooring solutions" states David Meberg, President & CEO of Consolidated Carpet. The layout is inclusive of four conference rooms and a dozen touch down spaces for visiting clientele, mill reps, and Consolidated's field based associates to utilize. Naturally, the company chose carpet, alongside a variety of floor finishes. Eight different flooring manufactures will be featured throughout the space.

New York City is the nation's busiest hub for the Architecture & Design industry. The Flatiron district is home to the widest range of furniture and décor stores, design firms, and showrooms. The company will share the building in the Flatiron neighborhood with a number of tenants including A+I Architecture, a valued industry partner. Other leaseholders include Knotel, Rebecca Minkoff headquarters, and Cote Korean Steakhouse. This location is positioned steps away from Madison Square Park, various public transportation outlets, and a multitude of flagship retail stores, hotels, and dining options.
