CONSOLIDATED CARPET’S “STRIVE FOR 75”--75 GOOD DEEDS TO CELEBRATE 75 GOOD YEARS

NEW YORK, N.Y. – January 3, 2018 – This coming November, Consolidated Carpet will reach an incredible milestone - its 75th anniversary. Being a third- generation, family- owned business and not only surviving, but thriving after 75 years is no easy feat. Owing much of its success to the community it serves, and the industry in which it operates, the company will celebrate this occasion by giving back. The Strive for 75--75 Good Deeds to Celebrate 75 Good Years, is a program adopted by the company and its associates that will highlight the dedication to service the company has long held.

Consolidated will perform 75 good deeds throughout 2018 to highlight the success that their community and industry helped them achieve. All of Consolidated’s initiatives will be shared on social media.

“As the year goes on, we will celebrate our success through good deeds we perform individually, and as a company, that benefit our industry and community,” CEO David Meberg said. A few of the deeds that are occurring this month are: the donation of the “Green Carpet” for this month’s Muscular Dystrophy Association Muscle Team Fundraiser at Chelsea Piers on January 9th, a contribution to the Carlstadt, N.J. Volunteer Ambulance Corps, a Silver Sponsorship of the New York City Chapter of Corenet, and participation in the 37th Annual Friends of St. Dominic’s Benefit Dinner as a Benefactor Sponsor.
